

AFFIDAVIT

I, Sarah O'Reilly, Special Agent, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (hereinafter referred to as ATF), being duly sworn, state as follows:

INTRODUCTION AND AGENT BACKGROUND

1. I am employed as a Special Agent with ATF and have been so employed since 2008. I am currently assigned to the ATF Violent Crime Task Force. As a Special Agent for ATF, I have investigated violations of federal law being committed by violent offenders and criminal organizations, including robberies, drug offenses, kidnapping, and firearms offenses. The information contained in this affidavit is based on my personal knowledge, and information provided to me by other law enforcement personnel and recorded conversations. Because this affidavit is being submitted for the limited purpose of establishing probable cause, I have not included every detail of every aspect of the investigation. Rather, I have set forth only those facts that I believe are necessary to establish probable cause for the issuance of the search warrant requested herein.

2. The statements in this affidavit are based on my investigation of this matter and on information provided by other law enforcement officers. Because this affidavit is being submitted for the limited purpose of securing an arrest warrant, I have not included each and every fact known to me concerning this investigation. I have set forth only those facts that I believe are necessary to establish probable cause to believe that Shaquan BROWN violated Title 18 U.S.C. 922(g), which criminalizes possession of a firearm by a convicted felon.

3. At approximately 10:30 a.m. on January 3, 2020, Uwchlan Township Police Department officers responded to a radio call for a residential burglary in progress at 5 Dowlin Forge Lane in Downingtown, Pennsylvania. The owner of the residence was alerted via a home security system application on her smart phone that motion was detected at the residence, which was unoccupied at the time. The owner was able to see two black males in dark clothing attempting to pry open a window at the residence.

4. Responding officers saw two men in black hooded sweatshirts and black pants attempting to pry open a window at the residence. One of the men, later identified as Shaquan BROWN, wore white gloves and had a black backpack on his back. Upon seeing the officers, the two men fled on foot into woods surrounding the residence. As he fled, BROWN dropped a firearm on the property of the residence and then picked it up. BROWN then fled into the woods where officers briefly lost sight of him. Minutes later, officers saw BROWN running through a creek and into a tunnel underneath a small bridge. They resumed pursuit and continued chasing BROWN through the creek, eventually catching him while still in the water. The second suspect was not located.

5. BROWN was arrested while wearing a black North Face backpack that contained, among other items, zipties, duct tape, and a firearm. Specifically, BROWN possessed a chrome and black Smith & Wesson, .40 caliber pistol with an obliterated serial number, loaded with 10 rounds of ammunition and 1 round in the chamber.

6. I have reviewed surveillance video of BROWN that shows BROWN drop a pistol in the driveway of the residence and then pick it up, before fleeing on foot from responding police officers. I have also examined the Smith & Wesson, .40 caliber pistol recovered from BROWN on January 3, 2020. A screenshot from the video and a picture of the firearm is listed below:

7. The Smith & Wesson, .40 caliber pistol, recovered from BROWN was manufactured in the state of Massachusetts. By virtue of the firearm being recovered in Pennsylvania, interstate commerce was affected.

8. Based on my investigation, I know that BROWN is a convicted felon who is legally prohibited from carrying firearms. On July 14, 2014, BROWN was arrested in Montgomery County and charged with burglary, conspiracy, and related offenses. On February 8, 2016, he pled guilty and was sentenced to an aggregate term of 1-2 years' incarceration, followed by 4 years of probation. (CP-46-CR-0005550-2014).¹ BROWN is currently under the supervision of the Pennsylvania Board of Probation and Parole.

9. Based on this information, I believe that probable cause exists to charge BROWN with illegally possessing a firearm in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 922(g).

LEGAL AUTHORITY

10. Title 18 U.S.C. § 922(g) prohibits any person from possessing, in or affecting interstate commerce, any firearm or ammunition when that person has been convicted, in any court, of a crime punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year and the person knew the status that made his possession of a firearm unlawful.
